Jacob Patterson (aka JP)

Q&A with JP

What are some of your favorite hobbies?

When he is not busy with real estate, Jacob's top three favorite things to do are fishing, long boarding and cooking.

Jacob what do you enjoy doing the most?

"I would say that my favorite hobby would be fishing. Fishing is just great, the feeling of having a behemoth Chinook Salmon, or a largemouth bass hooked on the line is just a great rush and overall, an amazing pastime. The beauty of it is that you may not catch anything. It gives me time to reflect, sit in nature unbothered, disconnected from the world allowing myself to collect my thoughts and absorb what life is truly about."

Where are you from and do you like living there?

"I grew up in Adrian Michigan my whole life. I would say I like it here, but the world is so vast and beautiful I definitely want to travel the world and expand my adventures outside of the small town of Adrian."

Did you play any sports in your lifetime?

"I played Soccer and basketball through middle school but quit basketball in High school sophomore year due to my lack of height and my abilities in basketball were not that good to say the least. I played Soccer Through FCA since I was 12 up until I was about 17, I would say. I enjoyed it. No feeling can compare to the overwhelming joy of scoring a goal. Seeing that ball hit the back of the net with tons of people cheering you on just feels surreal it is truly amazing.”

Tell us about your famous Rhubarb Pie?

“The story behind the infamous Strawberry Rhubarb Pie! I was brainstorming ways to help myself stand out as a relator. I remember my dad saying to me once how much he loved strawberry rhubarb pie, but he rarely ever gets to have some. I then just started asking random people in my everyday life if they liked strawberry rhubarb pie and out of 50, I would say that at least 35 said they loved it but the last time they had it was ages ago. Then there I knew I wanted to take a new approach and simply be genuine. I wanted to put my kind heart on display. I wanted to serve people and make a genuine connection with them. The Home buying and selling process can be super stressful and scary at times, I wanted to make it my goal to alleviate as much as that as possible as well as treat my client like family. My goal is to show my clients that THEY mean so much to me because they truly do and what better way to do that than to bake them a fresh pie.” Click HERE to watch his process!

What are your future career goals?

“I currently work mainly in real estate as well as doing some painting with my father on the side. I would love to get real estate to the point where it is full time but just starting out it takes patience, dedication and hard work which I’m willing to put in. Under the great mentorship/ leadership of Joe Wagley and everyone else at The Wagley Group I am super blessed, and grateful to where I am headed.”
